Hammonton Wine & Dine Tour

Lifelong foodie and celebrated home entertainer, Linda Cashan, is the owner of Kitchen 19. She began this journey looking for a way to facilitate the ever-expanding menu needs for coffee bar, Casciano Coffee Bar & Sweetery. At the same time, local food columnist and home cook, Olivia Bellano was beginning a business venture of her own with her handcrafted mason jar salads, The Belle's Jar. The two collaborated and Casciano became the home of The Belle's Jar Salad. The salads took off like a wild fire at Casciano Coffee Bar and the need for a bigger kitchen was increasing. In June of 2014, the two women took on Kitchen 19 to not only provide more space for their creative menus and coffee bar fare, but also to serve up a kitchen experience that the whole community can enjoy.

Catering and cooking classes were beginning to take flight. In 2015, Chef Briana Manning came on board to help take the kitchen to a whole other level which was to provide healthy meals to go for busy families. Healthy meal pick-ups as well as organic farm CSAs are still offered each week at Kitchen 19 for families who refuse to compromise their health for fast, delicious food.

- Each selection will include the necessary cooking tips and techniques to properly prepare in a home kitchen. Menu to include breakfast.. healthy, quick and decadent options! Overnight Oatmeal, Avocado Toast and Buona Festa Strata and Freshly-Brewed Coffee will be served from Casciano Coffee Bar & Sweetery, as well as a sampling of all above.

With the help from his father, Fran, Frances bought an existing store on Twelfth Street and Bagliani's Market was born. The Family's recipe for success has been embraced by Francis and Maria's sons who are carrying on the tradition today. We invite you to visit the "Old-Neighborhood" grocery store for a one of a kind experience.
